

INGLEBY BARWICK TOWN COUNCIL

Seamer Wind Farm Community Fund

As residents will be aware, Ingleby Barwick Town Council is anticipated to receive in the region of £ 2,000 per annum from the Seamer Wind Farm Community Fund. The Town Council, is responsible for disbursement of their allocation of the community fund; decisions on fund allocations are to be made following a majority vote at full Council meetings.

Please continue to forward any ideas/suggestions on how the Community Fund could be used for the benefit of Ingleby Barwick.

Proposed 'Bake Off' Competition

Arrangements for the proposed 'Bake Off' competition are currently being finalised. Further details will be provided in due course.

Proposed Community Centre, The Rings, Ingleby Barwick

This proposal is continuing to be pursued by Ingleby Barwick Town and Ward Councillors. Residents will be kept informed of progress.

Parking Issues at the Primary Schools, Dog Fouling and Litter

Parking issues, dog fouling and litter continue to be concerns which are being tackled by Enforcement, with regular patrols and raising awareness.

The Town Council would request the co-operation of residents with addressing these matters. Care For Your Area and Enforcement work hard to ensure that Ingleby Barwick is a safe and pleasant place to live.
