Seamer Wind Farm Community Fund

The Town Council is anticipated to receive in the region of £ 2,000 per annum from the Seamer Wind Farm Community Fund. The fund currently has a balance of £ 3,432.35.

The Town Council, is responsible for disbursement of their allocation of the community fund; decisions on fund allocations are to be made following a majority vote at full Council meetings.

To date the fund has been used for the purchase of either fruit trees or shrubs for the six primary schools in Ingleby Barwick.

It has also been agreed that the fund be used to purchase trophies for the 1st Prize winners of each of the categories in 'The Great Ingleby Barwick Bake Off' competition.

The Town Council would like to hear any ideas/suggestions from residents on how the Seamer Wind Farm Community Fund could be used for the benefit of Ingleby Barwick.
